

Cohen Ziffer Lawyers Obtain Landmark Decision from New York's highest court on Allocation of Liability in Viking Pump

On Tuesday, May 3, 2016, Cohen Ziffer lawyers secured a landmark decision for its client Warren Pumps LLC from New York's highest court, the Court of Appeals, on an issue of first impression in New York.

The decision held that standard form insurance policies containing "non-cumulation provisions" or "prior insurance provisions," present in thousands of policies nationwide, allow a policyholder to obtain coverage for its full liability from policies covering any policy year in which some injury took place.

Click here for Law360's recent report on the Viking Pump decision.

Related People

Robin Cohen

Keith McKenna