

Kenneth Frenchman Spoke to Business Insurance about FCPA Claims in D&O Policies

Kenneth Frenchman was quoted in a Business Insurance article, "D&O Policies Cover FCPA Claims, But Wordings Vary." The article discusses how coverage for Foreign Corrupt Practices Act claims is generally available under directors and officers liability policies, but has not been widely taken up, largely because of its expense. Litigation between insurers and policyholders is "not a high-occurrence event," though, said Ken. The full article can be found here.
